10 important english proverbs

1) When the going gets tough, the tough get going.

2) Better late than never.

It's best to do something on time. But if you can't do it on time, do it late.

For example- They finally finished the report 2 months late! Better late than never. (better late than never doing it at all)

3) Two wrongs don't make a right

It is not acceptable to do something bad to someone just because they did something bad to you first.

For example- She decided to steal from the company because they hadn't given her the raise in wages she wanted, and I told her two wrongs don't make a right.

4) Birds of a feather flock together.

People like to spend time with others who are similar to them and/ or have similar outlooks on life. For example- "I didn't realise there'd be so many people at this music event. Birds of a feather flock together!"

5) A picture is worth a thousand words.

Pictures convey emotions and messages better than written or spoken explanations. For example- "Even though he told me, I didn't realise the damage was so bad until he showed me a photo of it! Yes. Sometimes a picture's worth a thousand words."

Rhyming poems for kids

A Million Little Diamonds

A million little diamonds
Twinkled on the trees;
And all the little children cried,
"A jewel, if you please!"

But while they held their hands outstretched
To catch the diamonds gay,
A million little sunbeams came
And stole them all away.

— Mary Frances Butts

Room For One More

There is always room for one more
I see by his coat he must be a stray,
The untidy look gives him away.
He's lost his will and is so thin,
Hasn't eaten since God knows when.
I know as I coax him through the door,
There's always room for just one more.

For All Those People

by Ella J. Phillips

This is for all those people
Who hide in the dark,
For those who feel hopeless,
For those with a broken heart.

This is for every child and teen
Who is trying to flee from their fears,
For those who cry themselves to sleep,
For those who drown in their tears.

This is for people who hide their scars
Upon their wrists and their thighs.
I want to remind each of you
There is a reason you're alive.

You are here for a purpose;
You are needed in this place.
You are special, you are beautiful.
It doesn't matter what size, gender, or race.

You are perfect just the way you are.
You are priceless, a wonderful new.
You are dearly treasured by many.
There is no one more important than you.

The Hill we climb

by Armanda Gorman (inauguration of Joe Biden 2021)

When day comes we ask ourselves,
where can we find light in this never-ending shade?
The loss we carry,
a sea we must wade.
We've braved the belly of the beast,
We've learned that quiet isn't always peace,
and the norms and notions
of what just is
isn't always just-ice.
And yet the dawn is ours
before we knew it.
Somehow we do it.
Somehow we've weathered and witnessed
a nation that isn't broken,
but simply unfinished.
We the successors of a country and a time
where a skinny Black girl descended from slaves and raised by a single mother can dream of becoming president
only to find herself reciting for one.
And yes we are far from polished.
Far from pristine.
But that doesn't mean we are striving to form a union that is perfect.
We are striving to forge a union with purpose,
to compose a country committed to all cultures, colors,
characters and
conditions of man.
And so we lift our gazes not to what stands between us,
but what stands before us.
